(Associated Press Cable.)

London, Nov. 4.—In one of the worst gales ever known on the Irish Sea, the British steamship Connemara, with passengers and a cargo of cattle from Greenore, Ireland, for Holyhead, Wales, collided last night just outside the Carlingford Bar with the British steamship Retriever, loaded with coal.

Both vessels sank immediately, with an estimated loss of life of about 100.

Of the fifty passenger and crew of the Connemara, there is only one survivor. The entire crew of the Retriever was lost.

Many bodies are being washed ashore on the Irish coast. Members of cutter also are being washed up, some of them alive.

The weather was so rough that it would have been impossible to launch any boats, even had time permitted.

SYRIA RELIEF FUND MONEY

Nearly Half Million Dollars Collected on Special Day Effort.

(Associated Press Dispatch.)

Washington, Nov. 4.—Red Cross headquarters estimate that nearly $350,000 has been raised for relief of Syrian and Armenian war sufferers as the result of President Wilson's proclamation setting aside October 21 and 22 as special days for contribution.

The least official accounting on October 31, showed $225,000 on hand and about $35,000 a day coming in.

The supplies, which will be shipped about December 10, will be distributed entirely in Syria, where bad crops, a locust plague, requisitioning by the Turks, and the shutting off of the country both by rail and sea because of war operations, has brought 100,000 people to starvation.

The last official accounting on the balance raised above that will be sent in credit to Americans in Constantinople for relief among Armenians, who can only be reached in that way.

MIDNIGHT
CAMPAIGN

Both Presidential Nominees Will Spend Remaining Two Days in Rest and Quiet, President Wilson at Shadow Lawn and Mr. Hughes in New York.

(Associated Press Dispatch.)

New York, November 4.—Candidates for the presidency and prominent orators in general will make their last open appeal for votes today.

Sometime around midnight, when the last cheer has died away, the last red fire has burned out and the last parade has gone home, the national campaign will be virtually over.

Charles E. Hughes ended his political travels yesterday, but the last day of his campaign is one of the hardest.

He made five speeches here this afternoon and will deliver his final address at a rally in Madison Square Garden, which will close the greatest Republican rally of the campaign in New York city.

President Wilson at Long Branch will make his last speech before an audience from his home state. Every Democratic county organization in New Jersey will send delegates to Shadow Lawn.

Both candidates will spend the last two days that intervene before election quietly, the President at Shadow Lawn and Mr. Hughes at the hotel where he has made his New York headquarters since he left Washington. They will receive the returns at these places.

J. Frank Hanley, the Prohibition presidential candidate, will reach his home in Indianapolis tonight, after a final day of speechmaking through Indiana.

The Socialist candidate, Allen L. Benson, who has made campaign speeches in almost every part of the country, is today in Kansas City.

Mr. Hughes holds the record for campaign journeys. When he reached New York yesterday he had made four distinct trips, which, since August, have carried him through 33 states and a distance of about 28,000 miles.

None of the President's trips were so long as those of his rival, and most of them were made to some specific point for the purpose of delivering one principal address.

President Wilson's campaign has had the assistance of Cabinet members and of vice-President Marshall, while Mr. Hughes enjoyed the unique distinction of having speeches made for him by two former occupants of the White House, William Howard Taft and Theodore Roosevelt. Col. Roosevelt made his last speech last night here.

The increase in the number of states where women may vote for President this year has given women a greater part in this campaign than ever before.

The most extensive campaign trip ever undertaken by feminine political workers ended here last night, when a special train brought back the women who have been traveling through the country to win votes for Mr. Hughes. They have journeyed 11,700 miles and addressed 191 meetings in 28 states.

New York, November 4.—Approximately 2,000,000 bales of cotton, valued at about $200,000,000, have been destroyed by the boll weevil, and about 79 per cent of the cotton belt was infested by the insect this season, according to J. A. Taylor, president of the National Ginners' Association.

He said it was the worst year in the cotton industry for weevil damage.

HEAVY
IN GALITIA

French Front Is Quiet But Roumanian Front Is a Blaze of War.

(Associated Press Cable.)

London, November 4.—Heavy fighting continues on the battlefield of Galicia and along the Roumanian frontier without pronounced gains for either side. In northern France the night was quiet along the French front.

Berlin reports French and British attacks yesterday in the sectors north of the Somme and said the attacks were repulsed.

The Austro-German forces have made little additional progress in the campaign against Roumania.

Berlin announces recapture of a position southwest of Predal, which the Roumanians had taken November 3, but concedes the occupation by Roumanian troops of Rosca Heights.

Petrograd reports the advance of the Roumanians in the Jiu Valley is continuing.

On the Russian front, the Teutonic armies under Prince Leopold of Bavaria have taken some little additional ground from the Russians on the Narayuvka, southeast of Lemberg, in Galicia, Berlin announces.

In the first two days of the new Italian offensive the Austrians lost 39,000 men, according to dispatches from Rome to the Wireless Press.

The losses are said to have been distributed as follows: killed, 10,000; wounded, 20,000, taken prisoner, 9,000.

Fine weather favors the Italian advance, which continued yesterday over a more extended area and was increasingly violent.

PREDICT GAINS

Number of States Claimed By Drys.

(Associated Press Dispatch.)

Westerville, O., November 4.—Predictions that Michigan, Nebraska, S. Dakota and Montana will vote dry at Tuesday's election were made here today at the National headquarters of the Anti-Saloon League by Wayne B. Wheeler, attorney for the league.

He said that Montana would go dry two to one, South Dakota almost as strong, while Michigan and Nebraska are certain, although by narrower margins.

HOW WILL WOMEN VOTE

(Associated Press Dispatch.)

YIELDING SLOWLY TO PRESSURE

Roumanians Near Predeal Retiring Before Teutons.

ITALIANS ANNOUNCE GAINS

Capture Additional Positions From the Austrians in the Zone From Gorizia to the Adriatic, Taking Nearly 4,000 Prisoners and Guns—German Repel Violent Russian Attacks in Galicia.

London, Nov. 4.—Violent fighting marks the Teuton attempts to penetrate the plain of Roumania, south of Kronstadt and Hermannstadt and toward Bucharest. The stiff defense of the Roumanians is yielding slowly to the blows of Austro-German artillery and infantry about Predeal, and Berlin announces further progress south of the border for them. East of Predeal, however, the Roumanians, advancing in the Buzeu valley, have driven the invaders back over the frontier in the region of Table Butz. They also have taken Mount Sirul and Taturumio, along the Transylvanian border southeast of Kronstadt. South of Hermannstadt, in the region of Rothenthurm pass, the Austro-Germans have extended their lines and captured additional prisoners. West of Rothenthurm and in the Prahova valley the Roumanians are holding their ground.

On the eastern front, fighting has taken place east of Kovel, in Volhynia, and southeast of Lemberg, in Galicia. Berlin announces the repulse of seven Russian attacks against the Austro-German positions on the left bank of the Narayuvka river, near Halicz in Galicia, while Petrograd says the Russians have recaptured part of their trenches on the west bank of the Stokhod, in the region of Kieglin, in Volhynia. Near Llonkadoha, in Galicia, the Russians have pushed back the Austro-Germans in some places.

The Italian war office announced that in the zone from Gorizia to the Adriatic sea, the Italians have captured additional points of vantage from the Austrians and taken 3,948 more prisoners and guns, machine guns and quantities of arms and ammunition.

There have been no heavy actions on the Somme front. The French have made slight gains at Sally, and the British have taken a German trench east of Gueudecourt. Fort Vaux, in the Verdun region, has been occupied by the French, following its evacuation by the Germans.

LOSE ANYTHING?

(By American Press)

Canton, O., Nov. 4.—John S. Lacey, salesman of Cadiz, is looking for some one to claim $100,000 with interest since 1853.

Several decades ago some one carried a little iron box into the Medina county courthouse and deposited it with the county treasurer. As the administration changed through civil war days and afterward, all record of the box was lost and the name of the depositor was forgotten.

The little box lay under its covering of dust and with each change of administration was taken out and then put back. One day last week a clerk knocked it from its shelf and it broke open. Papers flew over the floor and when they were collected it was found that the box contained $100,000 worth of bonds issued by the Cleveland, Medina and Tuscarawas Railroad company in 1853. The railroad is now a part of the New York Central and is in a thriving condition. The bonds are in a perfect state and appear to be regular in every way, but no one knows to whom they belong.

DEMANDS MORE CARS

(By American Press)

Richmond, Va., Nov. 4.—The Chesapeake and Ohio railroad filed a complaint with the Interstate commerce commission against the refusal of the middle western railroad companies to surrender to the company 20,000 coal and freight cars now held on various lines. It is contended that this refusal renders impossible the company's effort to help remedy the threatened coal famine in the east.

DASH HOME INTEND DAYS

Deutschland to Be Convoys By Armored Submarine.

CAPTAIN KOENIG TALKS

Denies Report That He Will Go Through the Cape Cod Canal, Declaring Nothing Would Be Gained by This Route—Rumors of Presence of Allied Warships Not Credited. Gold Watch For Koenig.

New London, Conn., Nov. 4.—The German armored submarine U-57, sister ship of the U-53, which recently sunk five vessels off the New England coast, is expected to act as a convoy for the undersea freighter Deutschland on her return trip to Germany, according to a statement made by Captain Paul Koenig. The Deutschland's skipper added: "I would not be surprised if the armored submarine appeared off this coast while I am in port. You can't tell what the government will do."

Rumors are in circulation here of the presence of British and French cruisers off Block Island, No Man's Land and Nantucket shoals, but there was no confirmation from reliable sources. Commander Yates Stirling of the United States submarine base in the Thames river placed no credence in the reports. He said the tender Bushnell and four United States submarines have been maneuvering off Block Island and adjacent waters for two days, and that if foreign warships had been sighted a report would have been made to him immediately.

In answer to questions, Captain Koenig said he probably would make his homeward dash within the next ten days. He denied a report that he would go through the Cape Cod canal, saying nothing would be gained by this route.

Officials of the Eastern Forwarding company announced that the Deutschland's cargo had been discharged. Great care was exercised to prevent outsiders from seeing the work. Only the crews of the submersible and the

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel—there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.

Lloyds liner Willenad were allowed on the boat. They passed the freight out to negro stevedores, who stored it in the warehouses.

Vice President Hicken of the forwarding company left for New York. Nothing has been made public concerning the Deutschland's manifest. James L. McGovern, collector of customs, is out of town. He sent a special delivery letter to Captain Koenig, but the latter declined to comment on its contents.

The citizens' committee, which has arranged for a complimentary banquet to the Deutschland's crew next Wednesday, announced that a gold watch, suitably inscribed, will be presented to Captain Koenig.

GLORIA'S ROMANCE

By Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Hughes

Novelized from the Motion Picture Play of the same name by George Kleine.

SYNOPSIS.

Pierpont Stafford, with his daughter Gloria, is wintering at Palm Beach. Gloria is a vivacious but willful young lady who chafes under the restraining hand of a governess from whom she repeatedly escapes. Her childish capers cause young Doctor Royce to fall in love with her. Becoming lost in the everglades she falls into the hands of the Seminole Indians. Gloria falls in love with her rescuer, Freneau. Five years later she leaves school and meets Freneau at the theater; he has forgotten Gloria. Later Freneau persuades her to forgive him. Gloria's sister-in-law, Lois, becomes intensely jealous and Doctor Royce discovers in her a letter, comes from Freneau. She replies but her telegrams are returned. She accidentally sees the supposed suicide of Freneau reported in the paper. Gloria swears to find the murderer of her lover. Royce tells what he knows of Freneau to Mr. Stafford. They seek to prevent scandal from enveloping Gloria. She accuses them of conspiracy against her. Gloria sets about to run down Freneau's murderer. Royce warns Mulry to tell Gloria nothing. Gloria calls on Mulry and there sees Lois who is also worried. Gloria's suspicions are aroused. Royce endeavors to show her the difficulty she faces. Gloria goes to David's country home. She meets Mulry who flees at once. Gloria insists on going to Palm Beach. Again she sees Mulry there. He leaves for the North. She is recognized by her one-time captor, the young Indian chief. He tells her that Royce and not Freneau was her rescuer at that time. Gloria attends night court; she sees Mulry there, also the tramp who attacked Freneau. But Judge Freeman releases him. She follows the tramp when he leaves the court and falls into the hands of hold-up men. She finds herself in a low saloon dance hall, and is selected by one of the patrons as his partner. Doctor Royce, however, follows her and when he attempts a rescue, calls down a riot on their heads. The hall is raided and the crowd, including Gloria and Royce, is arrested and taken before Judge Freeman. The newspapers feature Gloria's arrest. Reporters surround the house. Casimir arrives with the child Gloria promised to adopt. She orders Royce to take Casimir's wife to the Stafford home. She follows Trask and lands on a houseboat to hear him accused of Freneau's murder.

But he could not imagine how this girl could have seen him. How could he guess that she had sat at her window with binoculars to her eyes and watched the whole tragedy. He began to grow superstitious. Gloria was apparently able to perform miracles. She wore the invisible cloak. Perhaps she would leave as mystically as she had come.

Finally he grew brave enough to shout out at her: "Who are you? What was Freneau to you?"

Gloria knew that anyone who blusters is likely to be weak, so she answered coldly: "Never mind who I am. The main thing is, who are you and what was Freneau to you?"

Jed Went Over With a Crash and Gloria Sided Up the Stairs.

The very name Freneau seemed to madden Trask. He emitted a loud yelp of hate and derision and left the table. He moved toward Gloria, but checked his mind or deferred his purpose and went up the stairs, closing the hatch and fastening it above. There was nothing reassuring in his last look at Gloria.

Nell was clearing up the table when she saw that Gloria was faint with hunger or terror. She offered Gloria the remnant of the supper. Gloria was glad to get it. She ate like another pauper. She felt that she would need what strength she would acquire. Her wits were dancing as she tried to think out a means of escape. She could not fight Nell and her father and the big man, too. She could not overcome them with force, and she had no weapon but her five wits, and they had never been trained to such problems.

She was as helpless before them as she had been when she was a little fifteen-year-old filly at Palm Beach and her governess had given her a problem in algebra (a-b)x(a-b)? She had stared at that riddle as she stared at this one.

Doctor Royce had happened along then and smiled at the easy task. He could probably solve this problem, too, but he was not here. She was alone and the solution depended solely on her.

She thought and thought while Nell cleared the table. She offered to help Nell and was permitted to aid in the work. When the last dish was removed to the wash basin Gloria and Nell took opposite ends of the coarse tablecloth. When it was folded twice the two girls began to bring the two ends together, as people do who are folding tablecloths.

Nell stopped short at the proper moment; Gloria went toward her. The solution came to her in a flash. Instead of putting the two ends of the tablecloth in Nell's fingers, she suddenly whipped the cloth over her head, brought it down around her elbows and, after a furious struggle, forced Nell back into a chair and knotted the tablecloth corners under the arms. She snatched a pair of dish towels from the wall and tied Nell's feet to the legs of the chair. Nell fought like a mad woman in a straitjacket, but the knots held.

Gloria was out of breath, but she was proud as Punch over her victory. She stood up panting and exclaimed: "Well!"

So far so good. But there was still Trask to settle with, and Jed, also. She had not tablecloths enough for all three, and she doubted if she could hoodwink those giants in the same way.

Another scheme occurred to her. She had noticed Nell poking up the fire in the little stove. Now Nell was quieting down and it was safe to leave her.

VOTE FOR PERMANENT PROSPERITY!

If there is doubt in your mind—REFLECT, that prior to the European War, Misery, Want and Business Stagnation prevailed and that 1,000,000 working men walked the streets, desperate for want of work.

Why Will it Not Have the Same Effect When Peace Comes?

A vote for Charles Evans Hughes for President of the United States and for the whole Republican ticket means industrial and commercial salvation.

AFTER THE WAR, WHAT?

Millions of American workingmen are now engaged in filling orders for war distressed Europe. The close of the war means the destruction of this outlet. American workmen who make war material will be out of a job.

Bankrupted Europe, when peace comes, will withdraw her millions from the trenches and hurl them into the avenues of production. To withstand that fearful onslaught, to safeguard the American workingman and American capital and American enterprise, we must adopt

GRAB VICTORY FROM DEFEAT

Washington High School Football Team Walks Off With Circleville in last Quarter of Hotly Contested Game Friday Afternoon—Score 21 to 13.

In the most sensational game played on the local gridiron this year Washington defeated the strong Circleville eleven, Friday afternoon.

With the game two-thirds over, and the score 13 to 0 against them, the boys recovered their old time pep and pushed over 21 points in a quarter and a half.

In the first quarter the ball was dangerously near the opposition's goal line several times but by super effort scoring was prevented. Washington worked the ball within five yards of the goal and fumbled, the being Washington's only chance to score in the first half. Coach Plyley made numerous substitutions during the game and it was this constant shifting that was responsible for the victory.

Circleville's scoring began and ended in the third quarter, when by a succession of line bucks they pushed over two touchdowns and kicked one goal, which made the score 13 to 0 against the home team.

In the latter part of the third quarter Washington started the grandest rally seen in years.

McFadden was especially good on line bucks and it was due to him that their first touchdown was made. After the kick off in the fourth quarter, the ball was on the twenty yard line in possession of Circleville. Circleville called a punt but Willis and Hoppers blocked it and O'Brian, rushing in got the ball and tore over the goal line for the second touchdown. Gregg kicked goal and the score was 14 to 13 with Washington one point to the good. It was growing dark and with four minutes to play McFadden made an excellent pass to Gregg for the third touchdown. McFadden kicked goal. Shortly afterward the whistle blew and the game was over.

Palmer was easily the best player Circleville had, making both their touchdowns. Captain Friedman was also there with the goods and it was through him that Circleville gains were made. Quarterback Dinton, played a very hard and intelligent game.

Washington's right side of the line was strong, very few gains being made through them. Captain McDonald played his usual hard game as did McFadden and Strevey. Gregg showed good generalship.

The game was frequently interrupted by arguments and for this reason the game required two hours.

Next Saturday the team plays Chillicothe on the Chillicothe field.

The lineups:
Circleville: Coffland, le; Slater, lt; Murray, lg; Neff, c; Porter, rg; Friedman, capt., rt; Burgett, re; Dunton, qb; Palma, lb; Lamparter, fb; Cline, rh.

Substitutions—Circleville, Adkins, 260 t2

Washington—W. Willis for Lewis; Wetzell for Weaver; Lloyd for Haynes; O'Brian for Gidding; O'Brian for Strevey; Strevey for O'Brian; Haines for Lloyd; Hoppers for Burnett; Reno for Hoppers; Hoppers for Reno.

Touchdowns—Palm, 2; McFadden, 1; O'Brian, 1; Gregg, 1.

OFFICERS CHOSEN FOR THE CAMPAIGN

At a meeting at the Arlington Hotel, Friday evening the officers for the Bromley Evangelistic Campaign were chosen as follows:

Chairman, Walter Patton; vice-chairman, G. E. Grove; secretary, J. E. McLean; treasurer, Geo. Jackson.

The above officers, together with Rev. A. P. Cherrington, form the executive committee and at a meeting to be held Monday evening the executive committee will select the heads of the various committees and they will in turn select their corps of assistants, so that within a short time the entire organization will be complete.

At the Friday night meeting Mr. Howard Hicks read a letter from Rev. Hart, new Baptist minister, who stated that he had studied the work of the Bromley party and had only words of praise for the methods employed.

He also stated that the Bromley party was opening a series of meetings in a town about 20 miles from his present home, and he expected to get in close touch with them so he could render better service when the party came to this city about January first.

DEFEAT OF MURRELL FOR STATE SENATE

Every sign of the campaign points toward the defeat of U. G. Murrell the Republican candidate for State Senator in this the Fifth Sixth district. The important feature of this trend of sentiment is the fact that it began in Murrell's own home county of Clinton. Four years ago his unpopularity was shown when he was defeated by the Republicans as a candidate for treasurer of his county.

Again the Republicans of Clinton county showed their dislike for Murrell when more than 800 votes were cast against him in the primaries. It was Clinton county's turn by the process of the old rule of rotation, but Murrell's candidacy was so unpopular that 800 Republicans used the opportunity to register their disapproval by voting for another candidate in a remote county.

Murrell's unpopularity was again registered when he sought a membership in the Clinton county Medical Association. Although a practicing physician, the medical profession of his own county denied him a membership by the protest vote of 8 to 3.

If Clinton county would refuse this man the nomination for treasurer. If Clinton county would pile up eight hundred protest votes against his nomination for the senator. If the Medical profession of Clinton county denied him a seat in the councils of their Medical Association by what right should the other counties of the district be interested in the political success of this candidate.

Especially why should the voters of the district send Murrell to the state senate when they have the opportunity to advance their interests by supporting Dan T. Hiser. Mr. Hiser is of infinitely better moral fibre. Three times the people have elected him to a place on the Board of Education in his home town, although he is a Democrat and the school district is 560 Republican. Mr. Hiser lives in the open, and his conduct as a citizen is above reproach. He is the president of a Men's Brotherhood composed of clean substantial citizenship. He is not a tool of a lobbyist. On the contrary he is a clean type of man honored and respected by the community in which he lives and why should a good Democrat or a good Republican decline a man like Dan T. Hiser for one who cannot command the confidence of his community nor the respect of his profession. It isn't a matter of politics. It is a matter of discretion.—Greenfield Journal. Adv.

FILTHY STREETS VERY UNHEALTHFUL

Saturday morning clouds of the most unsanitary dust were whirled about the city with every breath of wind until pedestrians were showered with the fine particles of health destroying dust and filth.

The dust was picked up from badly neglected streets, which have been accumulating filth for the past two or three months until all visitors to the city are commenting upon the filthy conditions of the streets in the main part of the city.

Saturday morning some of the citizens were discussing the feasibility of applying to the Health Board for drastic action to bring about a more wholesome condition of the paved streets in the business section of the city, where the filth has accumulated much more rapidly than on streets in the residence part of the city.

WALKS THE WIRE. HIGH ABOVE STREET

Edward LeRoy, professional tight rope walker, entertained a crowd of several hundred persons who assembled about the Court Fayette street intersection, Friday night to watch him perform on a wire stretched across the street from the Arlington Hotel to Memorial Hall.

LeRoy did all he agreed to and did it with such ease that the big crowd applauded his work, time after time. Incidentally he collected a neat sum in nickels and dimes.

Saturday afternoon he again gave a demonstration of his ability as a wire walker, and again drew a large crowd.

His final performance in this city will be given tonight.

The Election Near at Hand

The campaign is now near the end and the managers of both political parties and all candidates are using every endeavor to retain all advantage thus far gained and to obtain added advantages—the drive is on in earnest.

The predictions of a week ago that the presidential contest was likely to be close seems borne out in the frantic endeavors of the politicians. They are sparing no effort and spending a great amount of money, in spite of their confident and extravagant claims of certain victory for their tickets and candidates.

While nearly all calm observers of conditions admit that there may be a tremendous undercurrent among the silent voters which will return President Wilson to the White House or elevate Chas. E. Hughes to the presidency by an overwhelming majority, there is nothing to indicate any more than the possibility of such a condition apparent on the surface.

From all reliable information the result of the presidential election is going to be the closest in years.

There is not another election result in the past which can furnish a basis of comparison. Following the breaking of party lines four years ago there has been a gigantic shifting of the political line up and the election this year is the first under new conditions.

Not only is the drift of the bulk of the progressive party vote in doubt, but there has been a shifting about in the old parties. Conditions never faced before are to the forefront and absolutely new issues are pressing for consideration.

Everybody may have an opinion, and all are more or less prejudiced, but after all, it's a guess pure and simple as to what the result will be.

An Industry Worth Cultivating

One of the most rapidly growing industries in the United States is the cultivation of the English Walnut. The demand for these nuts is great and the country is producing only about one-half of the needed supply.

The Romans, nineteen hundred years ago, christened this nut the "nut of the Gods," and so great was their liking for them that they planted them throughout southern Europe, where yet stand trees over a thousand years old, "lasting monuments to the men who conquered those countries."

The English walnut tree is very valuable and almost every part of it can be converted into money. The handsome grain and weight of the wood gives to it an even greater value than mahogany in the manufacture of gun stocks and furniture.

It is the opinion of experts that enough English walnuts can be raised in this country to not only supply our needs, but to even provide for some export trade, instead of having to import heavily as we have been doing.

An industry as lucrative as the planting of English walnut trees, yielding for years to come a steady income to its owners with little work involved, is decidedly a thing to be cultivated.

Farmers Are Manufacturers

Right now there are quite a number of people who are blaming the farmer for the high cost of living.

The tillers of the soil need not be surprised that that condition exists because the high price of food stuffs is the one which affects the people most seriously and all food comes from the soil.

But the high prices of the farmers' products have not come through any class legislation or any special effort in his behalf. Natural laws and natural conditions have conspired to boost the price of farm products.

The farmer has been compelled to wait for higher laws to operate to bring a change in the price of the product of his toil.

The farmer is a manufacturer, perhaps the most important one we have, yet his interests have always received the least "protection" of all American manufacturers in laws made by human beings.

Poetry For Today

UNKNOWN BENEFACTORS.
What if another sit beneath the shade
Of the broad elm I planted by the way—
What if another heed the beacon light
I set upon the rock that wrecked my keel—
Have I not done my task and served my kind?
Nay, rather act thy part, unnamed,
unknown
And let fame blow her trumpet through the world
With noisy world to swell a fool's renown,
Joined with some truth he stumbled blindly o'er,
Or coupled with some single shining deed
That in the great account of all his days
Will stand alone upon the bankrupt sheet.
His pitying angel shows the clerk of heaven,
The noblest services come from name-
less hands,
And the best servant does his work
unseen.
Who forged in roaring flames the ponderous stone
And shaped the molded metal to his need?
Who gave the dragging car its rolling wheel,
And tamed the steel that whirls its circling round?
All these have left their work and not their names—
Why should I murmur at a fate like theirs?
—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

LACK OF EFFICIENCY IS CAUSE

Railroad Official on Present Car Shortage.

TESTIFIES AT LOUISVILLE

Commissioner McChord, following developments at the informal inquiry, recommends that an order be issued for a formal hearing at once. Railroad Men and Coal Dealers and Consumers Heard.

Louisville, Nov. 4.—C. C. McChord, member of the interstate commerce commission, who is presiding over the informal hearing being held here on the alleged car shortage on railroads of the country, announced that he had telegraphed to the commission at Washington recommending that an order for a formal hearing be entered immediately.

The formal hearing, if ordered, he said, will be merged with the present informal inquiry.

The testimony given under oath at the informal inquiry will be introduced at the proposed formal hearing, it is understood, and so made a basis for action by the interstate commerce commission.

The apparent shortage of cars upon the railroads of the country was declared to be the result of a lack of efficiency in their distribution by W. L. Barnes, superintendent of transportation of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad here. He was one of the last witnesses to testify at an informal hearing.

This declaration came as the result of questions addressed to him with the object of developing the cause of the present situation, as well as methods by which it might be remedied.

It was brought out that the railroads of the United States now own approximately 2,600,000 cars and that the apparent total shortage on all lines is only about 60,000. Mr. Barnes gave it as his opinion that much of this apparent shortage resulted from shippers asking for more cars than they need, in order that their allotment might approximate the number they really want. Any apparent shortage resulting from other causes, he said, could be met by a more efficient distribution of the car supply.

Mr. Barnes, in response to questions as to why the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy had failed to return cars owned by other roads, declared that system had been forced in self-defense to hold foreign cars and would continue to do so until some assurance was provided that their own equipment would be returned. More than 27,000 cars of all classes belonging to the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy were held on foreign lines, he said, while that system holds approximately 32,000 cars belonging to other lines.

Aside from Mr. Barnes, other railroad representatives heard were W. L. Parks, vice president of the Illinois Central; J. F. Porterfield of the same system, and C. B. Phelps, superintendent of transportation of the Louisville and Nashville railroad. Short statements were also presented by representatives of Ohio and Michigan coal dealers and consumers.

GOING RIGHT BACK INTO ICE AND SNOW

(By American Press)
New Orleans, Nov. 4.—Sir Ernest Shackleton came out of the frozen south and mingled again with English speaking people—the first he has seen since the fields of ice and snow in the south polar continent claimed him two years ago. The Antarctic explorer arrived in this port on the steamer Parishmina from Colon. "It's good to be back," he said as he strode down the gang plank to American soil.

The hardships which he underwent in his fruitless two years' quest of the South pole and his worry over the fate of his companions have told deeply upon the explorer. He was reticent concerning his experiences. "My first thought," he said, "is for those ten brave men left in the Ross sea. That is my only aim at present. I will sail from San Francisco on Nov. 8, and I hope to reach my stranded comrades, if they are still alive, late in January."

PASSENGER TRAIN SMASH

(By American Press)
Moline, Ill., Nov. 4.—The Southwest limited fast Milwaukee train, west-bound, was wrecked here when it ran into an open switch. Leo Miller, fireman of Chicago, was scalded to death; S. S. Kuse, engineer of Chicago, lost his left leg, and the Pullman conductor suffered a fracture of the bones of his face. The engine, baggage car and two steel coaches left the track and were piled up in a tangle.

That "American producers should compete on 'even terms' with the producers of all the rest of the world"

He advocates an eight-hour day. He opposes a protective tariff.

If the American workman is to have an eight-hour day and no protective tariff, how can he possibly be on "even terms" with the foreign workman who works ten or twelve hours or more a day, and for less than half the American wage?

Can an American workman read these policies of President Wilson and still believe him capable of solving the problems that confront the people of the United States?

Only a protective tariff can safeguard the American workman in his enjoyment of shorter hours and higher wages.

The foreign workman with whom he is invited to "compete on even terms" has scarcely wage enough to buy bread and butter for the American worker's table.

HARES AND HOUNDS HAVE LONG CHASE

The Juniors of the Y. M. C. A. enjoyed a long hare and hound chase, Saturday morning, covering some seven or eight miles north of this city, and the hares returning to the Y. M. C. A. without losing a single one.

When the hounds drifted in far behind the hares, all enjoyed a swim in the big tank, after which luncheon was served and a Junior Bible class organized with Ray Slagle president, and Dallas Hitchcock Secretary. Treasurer. The attendance committee named consists of Howard Davis, Ernest Conner, Don Duffey, Ray Snyder and Harvard Holden. The class is to meet every Saturday at noon, lunch together, and devoted some time to Bible study.

A relay race to Bloomingburg is planned for next Saturday.

TEACHERS ASSEMBLE INTERESTING SESSION

There was an attendance of a hundred and fifty and much interest.

Three splendid addresses were given, Mrs. Paulsen taking up the subject of "Recreation in the School System," Dr. Shepherd treating of "New Ideas in Education" and Dr. Boardman of "New Ideas in Education." Mr. Lewis sang.

Most of the County Schools decided to adjourn to attend the Central Ohio Teachers' Association convening in Columbus next Friday and Saturday.

For being in a state of intoxication, George Hoy, Saturday morning drew $5 and the costs when he faced Mayor Oster to answer to the charge. He was arrested Friday night.

At the reunion of the Grand Army held in Washington in 1915 what is believed to be the largest flag in the world was carried in the parade by the delegation from Canton, O. It measured 133 feet in length by 80 feet in width. The stripes were over six feet wide, while the stars in the union measured five feet across from point to point. The weight of the flag was over half a ton, while 117 men were required to carry it along the line of march. More than 20,000 hands set the necessary stitches, while sewed into the stars are the names of over 18,000 patriotic men and women of Canton who contributed either money or labor to the construction of this giant emblem.—A. WORLD WIDE MOVEMENT

Third Hague Conference May Be Called Before War Ends.

New York, Nov. 4.—The World's Court league, of which William H. Taft is honorary president, announced here the inauguration of a movement to organize an international council with a view to calling a third Hague conference, perhaps before the close of the war. In the latter event the conference would be prepared to act as a medium for peace proposals.

After the war it would serve as a permanent international council of conciliation for formulating and codifying new rules of international law.

"To constructive statesmen and leading thinkers" of all nations invitations will be mailed next week, it was stated, inviting them to accept appointments as members of the board of governors of the proposed international council. The league, in proposing to establish itself as a clearing house of peace movements, plans to go before the world, not as a sheriff assigned to enforce peace, it was explained, but as a permanent body which would be sustained by public opinion. If necessary, however, the armed power of nations might be called to its support, should public opinion not prove to have a convincing in-

England's First Savings Bank.

Writing of women's work and thrift, one is reminded that the first savings bank was instituted by a woman—Mrs. Priscilla Wakefield—who inaugurated a bank scheme for the encouragement of thrift among the children of Tottenham toward the end of the eighteenth century. This proved so successful that in 1804 she extended her plan of a charitable bank to include adults, and similar institutions were set up elsewhere, generally by ladies.

In 1808 Whitbread proposed a national savings bank, but parliament would have none of it. It was not until a Scotch minister, the Rev. Henry Duncan of Ruthwell, established one on a self supporting basis in his parish and set an example copied in almost every other district of Scotland that parliament at last recognized the savings bank as a national concern.—London Mirror.

CHORAL UNION IS ORGANIZED FRIDAY NIGHT

New Society for All in City and County Who Are Musically Inclined—Musical Festival Is Planned—Officers of New Society Chosen.

Friday at 7:30 p. m. a meeting was held in the High School Building for the purpose of presenting the plan for a Fayette County Choral Union. The Choral Union is to be composed of the musical organizations of the county, and any individuals in the county who are interested in music; and each year is to present to the public a musical festival.

The organization of the Choral Union was effected; Ray Maynard president, Helen Jones secretary, Lulu Rowan treasurer, Elizabeth Sheen musical director, the executive committee to be composed of president, secretary, treasurer, musical director was voted the privilege of appointing an assistant musical director.

The plan and time of meeting and the choice of oratorio to be given in the spring was left to the discretion of the executive committee.

Mr. Lewis, the soloist of the Community Institute has been largely responsible for this movement and has been invaluable in his help and suggestions and the community may consider itself very fortunate in the help of a man so widely known and experienced in the musical world. He promises to return in the spring with three other artists to take the solo work in the oratorio, and the entire county will look forward to the time of his return with great anticipation.

This Choral Union is opportunity for Fayette County to show its appreciation and interest in the cultural side of the community work. Let us create an interest in and staunchly support this admirable movement.

The first regular meeting will be Mon. Nov. 6th, at 7:30 p. m. in the High School Auditorium. Let every musical organization and every individual in the county interested in music be present at that meeting.

FINE CONCERT DESERVED PLAUDITS

It was to be regretted that the concert given by Mr. Samuel Lewis, Friday night at the High School Auditorium, came in a week over crowded with entertainments, for it was a rare musical feast.

Mr. Lewis has been most generous with his voice in this city and those who have heard him many times believed that his wonderfully rich and beautifully voice has seldom been heard to greater advantage than last night. Altho his oratorio and Opera numbers afforded the most brilliant opportunity his exquisite interpretation of such appealing ballads as "mother o' Mine," "Tours "Danny Boy"—"Wetherly"—"If I were You"—Wells—charmed the audience.

Mr. Lewis program included "La Donna Mobile"—Rigoletto — "Vesta la Gamba—Pappalacci— and four the Oratorios, "If with all your Hearts"—Eliza, "Total Eclipse"—Sampson, "Be Thou Faithful"—St. Paul.

Miss Mazie Kessler added two delightful violin solos to the program. Miss Ruth Reid's artistic work as accompanist again elicited the admiration it has won in connection with the singer, throughout the week.

WILSON AND HUGHES HAVE A CLOSE SHAVE

@ Both Mr. Wilson and Mr. Hughes had a close shave in this city Saturday morning.

Both men appeared at a local barber shop about the same time, and each appeared little disturbed over the campaign.

But the two men were not President Wilson and Candidate Hughes—they were W. W. Wilson, the fence man, and Henry T. Hughes, District Superintendent of Schools.

EXPLAINS FEE FOR HUNTERS' LICENSE

Some misunderstanding having arisen over fees charged for hunter's licenses in Ohio, Chief Warden John C. Speaks was asked to interpret the laws, and made the followin reply to a communication requesting information.

"As we understand the hunters license law, Clerks of Courts are required to collect $1.25 for issuing hunting licenses. The Attorney General takes this view for it.

"In the case of township clerks, collection of this fee is discretionary since, if collected the money goes to them personally.

"The objection you raise to this situation has been mentioned previously. It is frequently embarrassing to Clerks of Court, especially in cases where township clerks reside at the county seat, and perhaps being in business, think it is good advertising to issue licenses without charging the 25 cent fee.

"Very truly Yours,
JOHN C. SPEAKS,
Chief Warden

PHEASANTS ARRIVE ARE DISTRIBUTED

Twenty-seven ring-necked pheasants from the State Hatchery in Madison county, arrived in this city, Friday, consigned to the Fayette County Fish and Game Protective Association, and have been distributed accordingly.

The birds were given into the custody of only those who guarantee protection, and in as many parts of the county as possible, so that they might multiply in all parts of the county at the same time.

The pheasants were in good condition and as they are a very hardy bird it is expected they will go through the winter in good condition, although every aid should be given them by those who have them upon their farm.

DIGGING UP

(By American Press)
Washington, Nov. 4.—The federal department of justice announced that it would at once begin the prosecution of election fraud cases in the middle west. In a formal statement the department set forth that 69,000 negroes had been transported from the south to northern and western states, particularly Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, during the past three months. "The evidence plainly shows that the purpose of the transportation was to allow these negroes to vote," said the statement.

The department also announced that evidence collected showed registration books padded with thousands of fictitious names under which "repeaters" were to be voted, fraudulent registration of nonnaturalized aliens, and "numerous cases of intimidation, particularly by employers."

To The Voters Of Fayette County

I am a candidate on the Non-Partisan Judicial ticket for Probate Judge. Service with the Ohio Troops on the Mexican border, prevents my reaching home in time to conduct a campaign for re-election. I regret that I cannot call upon you personally to solicit your support as I hoped to be able to do. Being an officer I could resign but I feel that it would better commend me to your support to remain on the border and discharge my military duty to the country than to resign for the purpose of making a campaign for a civil office at home.

Hoping you appreciate my position and thanking you for your generous support, in my first campaign and asking that you will remember on election day, Tuesday November 7th next, that I am a candidate for a SECOND TERM for Probate Judge of Fayette County, I am,

Sincerely Yours,

RELL G. ALLEN.

SOME HARD KNOCKS ARE HANDED OUT

(By American Press)
Denver, Nov. 4.—Denouncing the entire public school system of this country as an institution which "gives a lot of us a job," John H. Francis, superintendent of schools of Columbus, O., was applauded by 2,000 Colorado educators. He advocated, before the Colorado State Teachers' association, the abolition of the grade system in schools and advised instead that the schools be divided in respect to subjects only.

"You say what I advocate will tear down the whole system," said Francis. "But I say that it is time to do so. The system is crowded with fads, and the most good it serves anyway is to give a lot of us a job. The three R's must go. They are merely incidentals in the modern system, and they are the force which is threatening to undermine the educational system of the country."

HIGH COST OF LIVING MENTIONED

New York, Nov. 4.—Charles E. Hughes delivered three speeches in Brooklyn, following his journey down the Hudson river valley from Albany. In his speeches Mr. Hughes spoke chiefly on the tariff and the maintenance of American rights abroad. He also assailed the administration for "broken promises" with respect to the reduction of the high cost of living, the observance of the merit system in making appointments, the maintenance of American rights abroad and economy in the expenses of government.

Conditions which industry in the United States will face at the close of the war were characterized as cause for "serious consideration by every student of our affairs." "We want to look out that we do not have a headache coming to us in the near future," the nominee told an audience at Newburgh, "because there are quite a number of things that we must carefully consider."

The Underwood tariff, Mr. Hughes said, would not meet the situation as a measure of protection to American industry. "Our opponents told us four years ago," Mr. Hughes said at Kingston, "of the wonderful opportunities they were going to give to American business. We know what actually followed. I do not mean that they were insincere. I simply mean that what they think fitted American life does not work with it."

Mr. Hughes said he asked his opponents what they were going to do about safeguarding American industry and they replied that they had a tariff commission. A tariff commission, he declared, did not pass laws.

TOHL'S JOB SAFE

(By American Press)

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Lee Fohl's job as manager of the Cleveland Indians is safe, according to James Dunn, owner of the club. "No one," said Dunn, "could have done much better than did Fohl in 1916."

Berlin (Via Sayville Wireless), Nov. 4.—German "mosquito" craft repeated their raid against British shipping, this time choosing the waters between the Thames and Dutch ports for their scene of activity. Several steamers were held up and searched and two were taken back to the German bases on the coast of Flanders. In a second exploit German torpedo boats were shelled by four British cruisers. No damage was done.

BIG DAILY PAPERS ADVANCE IN PRICE

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, November 4.—The high cost of print paper and other material was given today as the basis for a decision of the five Jewish dailies here, with a circulation said to be in excess of 500,000, to raise the price of their newspapers from one cent to two cents. The change will take effect Monday.

TETLOW DECLARES FOR GOV. WILLIS

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., November 4.—Percy Tetlow, vice president of the Ohio Federation of Labor and prominent member of the United Mine Workers organization, today repudiated the statement issued by John Voll, president of the State Federation of Labor, relative to the attitude of Governor Willis to the proposed amendment to the workmen's compensation law.

Tetlow said that Willis' attitude toward the workmen's compensation law is absolutely fair; Voll's statement was unauthorized by the federation, and that Voll's statement does not represent the view of the great mass of workmen in Ohio.

HOW WOULD YOU ENJOY A NEGLIGEE LIKE THIS?

Paris Design.

Hanging in graceful folds of pale blue satin this straight lined robe for comfort and lounging will appeal to tall women. The round yoke is piped and a monk's hood collar is faced with blue velvet, which also faces the open sleeves.

Pres. Wilson's Policy Of Neutrality.

This policy may not satisfy those who revel in destruction and find pleasure in despair. It may not satisfy the fire-eater or the swashbuckler. But it does satisfy those who worship at the Altar of the God of Peace. It does satisfy the Mothers of the land at whose hearth and fireside no jingoistic war has placed an empty chair. It does satisfy the daughters of this land from whom bluster and brag has sent no loving brother to the dissolution of the grave. If does satisfy the fathers of this land and the sons of this land who will fight for our Flag, and die for our Flag when Reason primes the rifle, when Honor draws the sword and Justice breathes a blessing on the standards they uphold.

Wilson on Labor

"I am a fierce partisan of the open shop."

Woodrow Wilson, 1909

"The class formed by the labor organizations and leaders is a formidable enemy to equality and betterment of opportunity."

Woodrow Wilson, 1907

Labor unions drag the highest man to the level of the lowest."

Woodrow Wilson, 1905

The usual standard of the laborer in our day is to give as little as he may for his wages."

Woodrow Wilson, 1909

These are the convictions of a Presidential candidate when he was not in public life—when he was not running for office—when he was not looking for votes.

They are the expressions of a scholar, the teacher of political economy, the writer of text-books and histories.

Not the hasty ill-considered opinions of an under-graduate but the deliberate reasoning of a seasoned mind—of a university head.

These are the views that Woodrow Wilson held when he was preparing thousands of young men for their administrative responsibilities, forming their judgment upon the relations between employer and employee, fulfilling his function of interpreter and advisor toward countless students who have since engaged in business for themselves, become executive heads in vast organizations or teachers in turn for another generation of future employers of labor.

These are the opinions which he held when he did not expect to hold office, when it did not advantage him to express any other opinions.

Woodrow Wilson did not claim to become a friend in need to labor until he had need of labor's friendship for his re-election.

Because this course is typical of the man, because it is impossible to know what he really believes or how long he will continue to believe anything he claims to believe, because he is inconsistent and indecisive, we oppose his re-election.

Hughes on Labor

"There are some who regard organized labor as a source of strife and menace of difficulty; I regard it as a fine opportunity for the improving of the conditions of the workingman."

Charles E. Hughes, 1908

"The missions of labor organizations is one of the finest that any organization of men could guard."

Charles E. Hughes, 1908

"He was the greatest friend of labor laws that ever occupied the govern's chair. He signed fifty-six labor laws (one-third of all passed in the state since 1777), among them many of the best ever enacted in this or any other state. He urged the enactment of labor laws in his messages to the legislature, even going so far as to demand a labor law at an extra session. Human rights has a steadfast and sympathetic upholder in the new justice."

N. Y. Legislative Labor News. 1910

These are not new opinions from the Republican candidate nor a recent estimate concerning him.

Hughes recorded his stand on labor not when a candidate for office, but as a governor of New York soon to retire from political life to become a Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, where he expected to remain the rest of his life.

They were the convictions of Charles E. Hughes on the eve of joining the highest tribunal in America, a court of last resort, at a time and in a situation when no possible advantage could accrue to him from any public expression.

No estimate of his fitness to fill the office of President with firmness, fairness and justice can be stronger than the above comment from a review of his career as governor by the organ of the New York Federation of Labor.

He has no need to talk, he has done.

He said what he believed then, he believes what he said now.

Therefore we support the candidacy and the convictions of Charles E. Hughes.
